

ROLE PROFILE GRADE 5 (Security Patrol Officer)

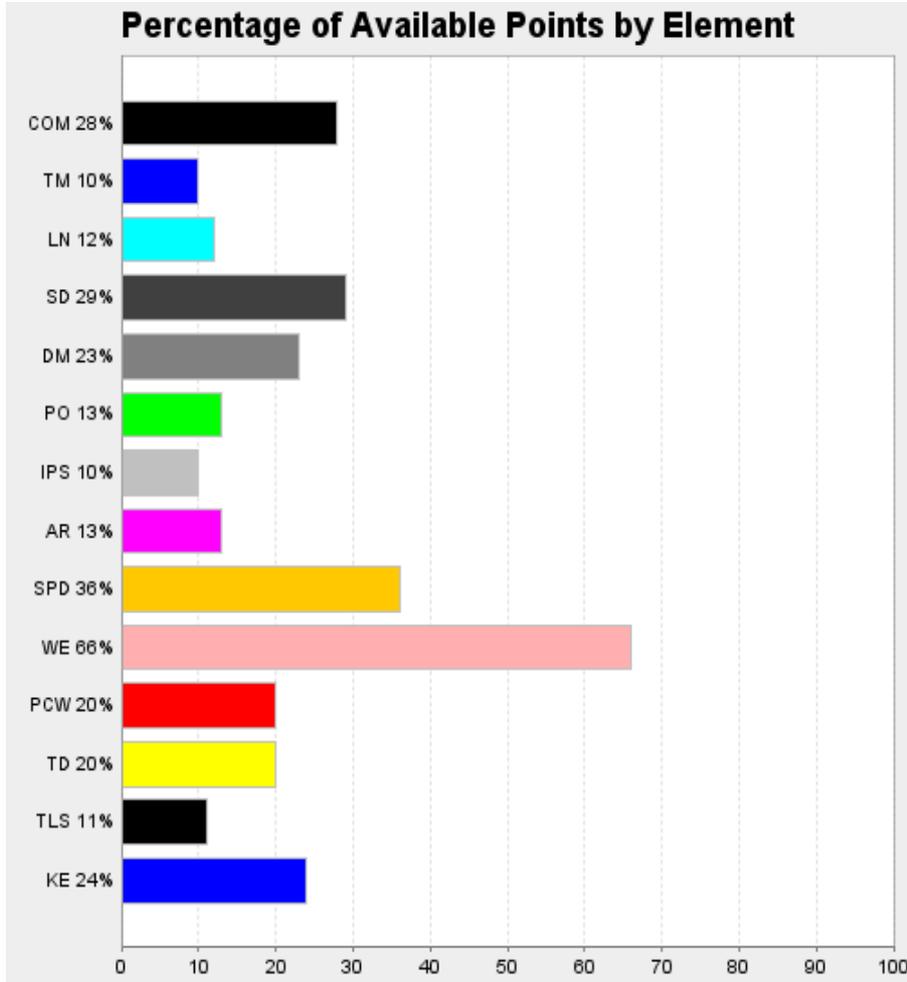

Role Title	Points Range
Grade 5 Security Patrol Officer	201 - 230

1. COMMUNICATION
(a) Oral Communication. May frequently receive, understand and convey straightforward information in a clear and accurate manner. Examples might include, replying to simple requests for information, passing on messages and handling routine telephone enquiries. (b) Written Communication. May frequently receive, understand and convey straightforward information in a clear and accurate manner. Examples may include, taking messages, preparing standard letters, confirming appointments and handling straightforward correspondence including emails.
2. TEAM WORK AND MOTIVATION
Mainly required to participate in and deliver their contribution to a team, be co-operative when asked but may not be required to take a proactive role in the team.
3. LIAISON AND NETWORKING
Generally required to carry out standard day to day liaison using existing procedures in order to pass on information promptly; keep people informed to ensure co-ordination of effort and that work is done effectively.
4. SERVICE DELIVERY
Mainly be required to deal with internal or external contacts who ask for service or require information; create a positive image of the institution by being responsive and prompt in responding to requests and referring the user to the right person if necessary. Contact is usually initiated by the customer and typically involves routine tasks with set standards or procedures.
5. DECISION MAKING PROCESSES
May be required to make independent decisions which have a minor impact, that affect only the role holder or immediate colleagues and can be undone quickly with little implication. Examples may include choosing stock from a preferred suppliers list, deciding when to hold a meeting or buying low cost items within a local budget. May also be required to provide advice or input that will contribute to the decision making of others which have a minor impact, such as giving feedback on the usage of a service or recommending a product to sell/buy or providing information to committees or working groups.
6. PLANNING AND ORGANISING RESOURCES
Mainly required to complete tasks to a given plan following the instruction of others, with allocated resources, for example working to a set pattern each day. However, in addition the role holder may also at times be required to plan, prioritise and organise their own work or resources to achieve agreed objectives. Examples may include deciding how and when to respond to requests for information, when to order replacement stock.
7. INITIATIVE AND PROBLEM SOLVING
Generally required to solve standard day to day problems as they arise either by choosing between a limited number of options which have clear consequences, by following guidelines or referring to what has been done before. The role holder should be able to recognise when a problem should be referred to others. Problems dealt with will usually be the type that recurs on a regular, routine basis.

8. ANALYSIS AND RESEARCH
Mainly required to establish the basic facts in situations which require further investigation and inform others if necessary. Examples may include; balancing money in a cash register and reporting any mismatch, carrying out routine maintenance checks and reporting faults, checking stock levels against an inventory. May also at times be required to analyse routine data or information using predetermined procedures and gathering the information from standard sources; work accurately to complete the task precisely as specified. Examples may include providing statistics using standard techniques (e.g. on spreadsheets), providing data for payroll purposes, carrying out literature and database searches or monitoring resource usage such as expenditure against a budget.
9. SENSORY AND PHYSICAL DEMANDS
May be required to carry out tasks at a level which would require either learning certain methods or routines or involve moderate physical effort. Examples might include handling a person correctly, administering standard treatment, lifting heavy, awkward or highly valuable objects, learning to use a specialist tool or piece of equipment effectively, touch or audio typing for more than 50% of the working time
10. WORK ENVIRONMENT
Generally required to understand how the work environment could impact on their own work or that of others, taking standard action, within health and safety guidelines, to adapt to the environment for example following safe procedures when using machinery or ensuring that standard protective clothing is available and worn.
11. PASTORAL CARE AND WELFARE
On occasions may be required to show sensitivity to those who may need help or, in extreme cases, are showing signs of obvious distress; initiate appropriate action by involving relevant people.
12. TEAM DEVELOPMENT
Occasionally may be required to advise or guide new starters working in the same role or unit on standard information or procedures. Examples might include showing a new member of staff around, explaining administrative systems and procedures.
13. TEACHING AND LEARNING SUPPORT
This is not a requirement for the role.
14. KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE
Generally required to have sufficient knowledge or expertise to work on day to day issues in their own area without direct or continuous reference to others. The level of knowledge required will typically be gained following a short period of practical training and may include some elementary or introductory study. Examples may include requiring previous basic supervisory skills, knowledge of work processing packages, understanding the use of an established practice, procedure or techniques.

EXAMPLE OF POSSIBLE SCORING FOR GRADE 5 SECURITY PATROL OFFICERS

This is only an illustrative example of how a role in Grade 5 generally may score on each element. Please note that there will be some variance in the percentage of points given for each element for each individual role. The graph below should only be used as a guide.

- Com      Communication
- TM      Team Work and Motivation
- LN      Liaison and Networking
- SD      Service Delivery
- DM      Decision Making
- PO      Planning & Organising
- IPS      Initiative and Problem Solving
- AR      Analysis and Research
- SPD      Sensory and Physical Demands
- WE      Work Environment
- PCW      Pastoral Care and Welfare
- TD      Team Development
- TLS      Teaching and Learning Support
- KE      Knowledge and Experience