

Terms and Conditions of Enrolment

1. Introduction to and effect of these Terms and Conditions

- 1.1 These terms and conditions (“these Conditions”) are the standard terms and conditions for undergraduate, postgraduate and all other students enrolling at Aston University (“the University”). Together with your offer letter, the other documents and terms and conditions to which they refer, these Conditions form the contract between the University and you, the student, with regard to your Programme of study and/or research at the University (“the Programme”). If there is any inconsistency between these Conditions and any other document generated by or on behalf of the University, these Conditions will prevail.
- 1.2 These Conditions together with the matters referred to in any document setting out the offer made to you (whether made directly to you by the University in an offer letter or on behalf of the University by the Universities and Colleges Admissions Service (UCAS) or any other agency) (“Offer”) and reflects the entire understanding between you and the University with regard to the Programme and replace any other written or verbal promises, undertakings or representations. For the avoidance of doubt, the University’s Student Charters for students on taught programmes and postgraduate research students are not legally binding and do not form part of the contract between you and the University.
- 1.3 No contract will exist between you and the University until you formally notify the University of your acceptance of an Offer of a place either in writing or via a University-approved online offer/acceptance system, whichever is applicable to your application, whether that is direct to the University or through UCAS or any other agency acting with the authority of the University.
- 1.4 It is a condition of entry onto the Programme, and of your subsequent continuation in each academic year, that you formally enrol either via the University’s on-line enrolment process. By doing so you are confirming that you understand and accept these Conditions (and any amendment or addition to the same applicable at the date of enrolment in each academic year), the University’s rules and regulations and undertake to pay all fees due, by the dates specified by the University, unless previously agreed otherwise by an authorised officer of the University.
- 1.5 You may cancel your acceptance of this Offer within fourteen calendar days, beginning on the day after you have notified us in writing of your acceptance. In that event that this period ends on a non-working day, it will be extended until the next working day. In these circumstances, you will receive a full refund of any fees paid for the Programme. To cancel your acceptance, please complete the University’s cancellation form and send it to Admissions Team, Admissions, Recruitment and Outreach, Aston University, Aston Triangle, Birmingham B4 7ET or email apply@aston.ac.uk.
- 1.6 Where the University starts to provide a Programme before the end of the fourteen day period referred to above, you may only cancel your place on the Programme up to the time when the Programme begins. In these circumstances, refunds will be subject to the University’s Tuition Fee Policy. You may cancel your acceptance of an Offer within fourteen days, beginning on the day after you have applied to us via UCAS Track. In these circumstances, you will receive a full refund of any fees paid for the Programme. To cancel your acceptance, please complete the attached cancellation form and send it to Admissions Team, Admissions, Recruitment and Outreach, Aston University, Aston Triangle, Birmingham B4 7ET or email apply@aston.ac.uk.

2. The University’s Obligations to You

The University will deliver the Programme to you with all reasonable care and skill and will make available all learning support facilities and other services as it considers appropriate, subject to the constraints imposed by its financial resources. The University will consult with you in advance of any material changes over the course of the Programme in accordance with the Policy on Student Consultation for Programme and Module Changes.

3. Your Obligations to the University

3.1 You are required to comply with your obligations under these Conditions and to:

- 3.1.1 attend lectures, training, tutorials, examinations and other activities which form part of the Programme (subject to absence for genuine medical reasons or other special circumstances). Failure to do so may result in you being withdrawn from the Programme;
- 3.1.2 complete and submit all course work required for the Programme of study or research by published deadlines or inform tutors where a situation arises that prevents you from doing so in accordance with University Regulations;
- 3.1.3 carry out adequate preparation for any activity which you are required to undertake in connection with your studies or research outside the University ensuring that at all times you are conducting yourself in an appropriate manner in accordance with the University's Regulations;
- 3.1.4 provide the University with an emergency contact name and details which may be used by the University at its discretion and notify the University promptly of any changes to the information which you submitted on application or enrolment; for example, if you change your correspondence address;
- 3.1.5 comply with any professional standards that may be applicable to the Programme;
- 3.1.6 familiarise yourself with and agree to abide by the University's Regulations which are set out in more detail in Condition 5;
- 3.1.7 notify the University promptly in the event that you choose to withdraw from your Programme for any reason. If you do choose to withdraw from your Programme, the University will be entitled to consider you as being still enrolled until the date when the University has received written notification that you wish to withdraw from your Programme or the University has notified you in writing that your place on your Programme has been terminated.
- 3.1.8 If you do withdraw from your Programme for any reason you must:
 - (a) cease attending lectures and/or undertaking research, and
 - (b) return all items and materials issued to you but owned by the University, including your University access card, and
 - (c) pay any outstanding sums owed to the University.
- 3.1.9 if you fail to participate in your Programme of study and/or research to an extent that your Personal Tutors or Supervisors believe that you will be unable to successfully progress or complete the Programme, or you fail to respond adequately to the University's attempts to seek your re-engagement with your Programme of study and/or research, the University will be entitled to consider you withdrawn from your Programme and take steps to terminate your place on the Programme.

4. Fees and Payment

As a student of the University, you will be required to pay fees which will be set out in a separate document relating to your specific Programme and governed by the University's Tuition Fee Policy.

5. University Rules and Regulations

- 5.1 As a condition of accepting an Offer, you agree to familiarise yourself with and abide by all of the University's rules and regulations including by not limited to the University's General Regulations for Programmes, Disciplinary Regulations for Students and the IP Policy. Copies of General Regulations and/or Codes of Practice directly relevant to your programme of study are available on My Aston Portal (MAP). Details of other University Regulations, Policy Statements, Guidelines and Codes of Practice can be found by viewing the A-Z of Academic Regulations, Policy and Procedures.
- 5.2 If your studies with the University are terminated as a result of disciplinary action taken against you in accordance with the disciplinary procedures of the University these Conditions will end automatically without the need for any notice, unless the University confirms otherwise in writing.
- 5.3 If you are expelled or dismissed from any institution or organisation other than the University which you are required to attend or be a member of as part of the Programme, the University will be entitled to end these Conditions immediately by written notice to you.
- 5.4 The termination of your studies for whatever reasons will not exempt or release you from your obligation to pay any fees due to the University or from complying with any other obligation under these Conditions which may have been required of you prior to any such termination of your studies.

6. Membership of the Students' Union

As a student of the University you are entitled to be a member of the University's Students' Union. Conduct of the Union of Students is regulated in accordance with the Education Act 1994, and the relationship between the Students' Union and the University is regulated by a Memorandum of Understanding. Further information is available from the Students' Union or the Governance Team of the University.

7. Plagiarism Detection Software

The University may use plagiarism detection software, such as Turnitin™, as a supportive teaching tool to aid development of good academic practice. The University may also use such software as a detection tool to uncover cases of suspected plagiarism. The University may also share information on your written material with other Higher Education providers if it is suspected that your material has been used for plagiarism. By accepting these terms and conditions you are giving permission for the University to use plagiarism software when you submit written material for assessment purposes.

8. Your Use of University Computer Equipment, Software and Electronic Resources

- 8.1 Whilst the University will endeavour to ensure that computer equipment and software it makes available for your use has reasonable security and anti-virus facilities and protections, your use of such computer equipment and any software provided by the University is at your own risk.
- 8.2 Use of software and electronic resources at Aston University is subject to copyright and licence agreements that restrict your use to 'educational purposes' and place limitations on the re-use, copying or adapting of software and electronic resources by you. You may not share your Aston University username or password. By accepting these Conditions you agree to be bound by these conditions when using the resources. Full details can be found by viewing the Use of E-Resources and Software: Acknowledgement of Third Party Rights.

9. Change of Circumstances

9.1 In addition to the University's rights to terminate these Conditions in accordance with Conditions 5.2 and 5.3, the University will be entitled to terminate these Conditions immediately by notice in writing to you in the following circumstances:

9.1.1 if between the acceptance of an Offer by you and the beginning of the Programme there is a change in your circumstances or if the University becomes aware of information relating to you not previously known to it (including, but not limited to, information about criminal convictions, subject to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974) which in the reasonable opinion of the University makes it inappropriate for you to study on the Programme; or

9.1.2 if, in the reasonable opinion of the University, you have failed to provide the University with all relevant information or have supplied false or misleading information relating to your application for the Programme.

10. Provision of the Programme

10.1 Subject to Conditions 10.2 and 10.3, the University will deliver the Programme in accordance with the Programme Specification provided with your Offer.

10.2 Due to the nature of research programmes, the University will deliver the Programme to research students in accordance with the terms of your Offer.

10.3 Where the Programme is accredited by an accrediting body, the University will make changes to the Programme if required to do so by the accrediting body to maintain the Programme's accreditation.

10.4 The University has finite resources which must be managed in an efficient way, in the context of the provision of a wide range of courses to a large number of students. Accordingly, the University will consult with you in advance of any material changes over the course of the Programme in accordance with the Policy on Student Consultation for Programme and Module Changes.

11. Requirements on termination of these Conditions

11.1 If at any time the University terminates these Conditions as a result of its rights under these Conditions, by any other permitted reason or if these Conditions terminate automatically:

11.1.1 the University will be entitled to refuse to enrol you on the Programme, if at the date of termination you have not already enrolled;

11.1.2 the University will be entitled to require you to stop studying on the Programme, and to leave the University immediately, if at the date of termination you have already enrolled;

11.1.3 any action taken by the University under Conditions 11.1.1 or 11.1.2 will not restrict the ability of the University to take any other action, which it may be entitled to take, against you; and

11.1.4 you are required to immediately return the student card which was issued to you on enrolment.

12. Special Conditions

12.1 As a student of the University you may be entitled to receive financial support through a bursary, scholarship or other scheme. In the event that you are eligible for such financial support, you agree to abide by the terms and conditions relating to that specific bursary, scholarship or other scheme.

12.2 You agree that you will abide by any special conditions relating to the Programme notified to you by the University.

13. Data Protection

- 13.1 The University may use and process personal data or information about you whilst you are a student of the University and after you have left the University.
- 13.2 By accepting an Offer you are consenting to the University processing your data including sensitive personal data, for the purposes and in the manner set out in this Condition 13. Sensitive personal data includes information held by the University as to your physical or mental health or condition, your racial/ethnic origin, the commission or alleged commission of any offence by you and any proceedings for an offence committed or alleged to have been committed by you (including the outcome or sentence in such proceedings).
- 13.3 The purposes for which the University may process your personal data (including sensitive personal data) include:
- 13.3.1 the administration of your enrolment on and participation on a Programme, including the administration of examinations, the issue of results and certificates in connection with the Programme, recording of other relevant University achievements, and (where applicable) the provision of information to your employer or other sponsor/corporate sponsor about your attendance and performance on a Programme;
 - 13.3.2 the provision of University services and facilities to you and the protection of your health, safety and welfare whilst at the University (which may involve the University disclosing your personal data to the University's Union of Students and other third parties, such as our appointed service providers from time to time of email and data storage facilities for students and alumni);
 - 13.3.3 the collection of any fees payable by you to the University;
 - 13.3.4 issue and operation of your University access card;
 - 13.3.5 equal opportunities monitoring;
 - 13.3.6 alumni activities;
 - 13.3.7 the provision of references about you;
 - 13.3.8 providing confirmation that you are or have been a student at the University in response to enquiries of any nature;
 - 13.3.9 to seek feedback from you about your Programme;
 - 13.3.10 to enhance the student experience;
 - 13.3.11 the provision of information to any government or regulatory body or agency (including, without limitation, the Higher Education Funding Council for England, the Higher Education Statistics Agency (HESA), the UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) and relevant professional standards and registration bodies) and the emergency services for legitimate purposes; and
 - 13.3.12 for safety purposes (for example use of CCTV monitoring in areas of the University whereby such use is made apparent).
- 13.4 In some circumstances, it may be necessary for the University to transfer your personal data to a country outside the European Economic Area (for example, if you undertake a Programme in such a country, or that is your country of origin). Such a transfer will only be made for the purposes specified in Condition 13.3. However, you should be aware that countries outside the European Economic Area may not offer data protection law equivalent to that applicable in the United Kingdom, and by agreeing to these Conditions you consent to the transfer of data in these circumstances and for those purposes.

- 13.5 The University will issue you with a University access card which will serve as a means of identification and your means of access to various University services and facilities, including libraries, computing facilities, University and car parks. The University may process personal data collected as a result of your use of such card for the purposes set out in Condition 13.3. The University may also disclose personal data about access card holders to third parties to facilitate the provision of further services and facilities. If you do not wish your personal data to be disclosed to third parties, you should notify the Director of Governance in writing.
- 13.6 The University may use data in the form of photographs of classroom situations or general activity in common areas of the University as part of general marketing materials for example in the University's annual report, prospectus or course materials. Personal data alongside photographs will only be used with explicit consent.
- 13.7 The University may record lectures and presentations for later access as part of the University's learning resource. You understand and accept that you may appear in such recordings where you have attended such activity.

14. General

- 14.1 If any provision of these Conditions is or becomes illegal, invalid, void or unenforceable that will not affect the legality, validity or enforceability of the other provisions.
- 14.2 Any notice or other communication made under these Conditions will be in writing and addressed to you at the last email or postal address notified by you to the University, and will be deemed to have been properly served if delivered by email, by hand when left at that postal address or if made by first class post (48 hours after being posted to that address).
- 14.3 If you breach these Conditions and the University chooses not to exercise any right which it may have against you as a consequence of that breach, the University will not be prevented from taking action against you in the future in respect of any other breaches by you.
- 14.4 These Conditions are only enforceable by you and the University. No other person will have any rights in connection with these Conditions.
- 14.5 These Conditions will be governed by and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and the parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

15. Additional Conditions for Leavers

The Aston University Careers+Placements Team may contact you after graduation to collect first destination information for the Destinations of Leavers from Higher Education survey. If you do not wish to be contacted for this purpose, please inform the Careers+Placements Team before you leave the University.

16. Additional Conditions for International (Non-EEA) Students

- 16.1 The University is a UKVI approved sponsor of International Students. As such, the University is obliged to operate within the requirements of the relevant Immigration legislation and formal regulations for Sponsors. These include:
- 16.1.1 ensuring that a record of passport and visa documentation is held for each International Student.

16.1.2 ensuring that contact details are maintained and up to date for every student.

16.1.3 ensuring that students are meeting the attendance criteria for their Programme of study.

16.1.4 reporting any non-compliance to the UKVI within their mandatory timescales.

16.2 If you are a non-EEA student who requires formal student visa entry clearance from the UK authorities to enter or remain in the UK for the purpose of undertaking study or research, there are obligations you must meet as a student at this University:

16.2.1 When you arrive at the University to start your Programme of study, you are required to contact the Visa Compliance Team for Visa Scanning;

16.2.2 During your Programme of study:

- (a) you must re-enrol at the start of each academic year and make suitable arrangements to pay any Fees due, in accordance with the University's Tuition Fee Policy;
- (b) you must inform the University of any changes to your personal and/or academic circumstances which might have an impact on your visa status, including any part-time employment during term time;
- (c) any change of your address, visa status or passport details must be reported promptly by you to the University;
- (d) you are responsible for ensuring that your visa remains valid from the commencement of and for the duration of your Programme and that you apply for any necessary extension/renewal in good time;
- (e) you will be expected to meet all the attendance and submission dates relevant to your Programme of study; and
- (f) failure to comply with these requirements may lead to your suspension from the University and ultimately the cancellation of your place on a Programme at the University with your non-compliance being reported to the UKVI.

16.2.3 If your place on a Programme is terminated by the University for any reason:

- (a) your contract with the University will terminate and the termination provisions at Condition 11 will apply;
- (b) you will not be permitted to attend any lectures, tutorials or classes nor use any University services or facilities which are normally available to students; and
- (c) the University will report the cancellation of your place on a Programme to the UKVI.

17. Personal Declaration

I acknowledge that I have read and understood these Conditions. I understand that I will need to confirm this acceptance when I enrol at the University. Please tick the box to confirm this.	<input type="checkbox"/>
---	--------------------------