

DID YOU KNOW?

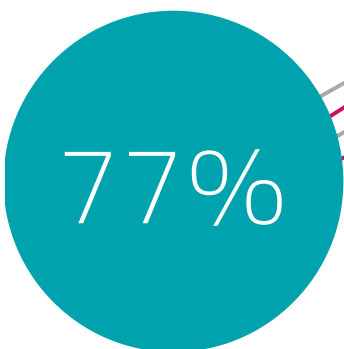

1 in 4 organisations have put employees on to a management and leadership programme.

of employers that take on an apprentice report benefits to their business.

of employers believe their apprenticeships lead to a more motivated workforce of employers believe apprenticeships make them more competitive of companies who invest in apprentices reported a significant increase in employee retention

Programmes allow training to take place at the workplace with little disruption to operations of employers rely on their apprentices to provide their future skilled workforce

Apprenticeships cover 15,000 different job roles across 170 industries